▲ Little Or No Regulation

currently, the cryptocurrency market is operating without any major regulation. The government doesn't have a clear stance on the cryptocurrency.

▲ Technology Reliance

Bitcoin is a digital currency that is fully reliant on technology. Coins are digitally mined, exchanged via smart wallet and kept in check using various systems. Unlike other currencies or investments, there is no physical collateral to back it up. With gold, real estate, bonds or mutual funds, you own something that can be exchanged. With a currency that is 100% technology-based, bitcoin owners are more vulnerable to cyberthreats, online fraud and a system that can be shut down.

▲ Consumer Protection

Bitcoin does not provide any consumer protection. A perfect transaction cannot be undone. All that remains after a failed transaction is to try to convince the recipient of funds to return them voluntarily. This is due to the fact that there is no intermediary guarantor, as is the case with bank cards. Bitcoin transactions are similar to regular cash transactions, in which there are only 2 parties. The irreversibility of transactions in itself has little effect on the risks of investing in Bitcoin as an asset. However, investors must also be aware of this fact.
